Novel "A Tale of Two Cities"

Chapters (1- 4)

Answer the Questions:

1. What was the message that was sent to Mr. Lorry?

He had to wait at Dover for Lucie.

2. What was the story of Dr. Manette and Lucie?

About twenty years ago, Dr. Manette, a French doctor married an English lady. They had a daughter, but just before she was born, her father disappeared.

Nobody knew what had happened to him. His unhappy wife died, and their daughter was brought back to London. Dr. Manette was in prison because he had a powerful enemy with the power to send him to prison and to keep him there, hidden and forgotten, for 18 years.

3. "From a small box the old man took some golden hair."

Explain.

When Lucie put her arm around the old man and held him, he took some golden hair and looked at it and then he looked at Lucie's hair. He found that the two lockets of hair are the same. He thought that Lucie was his wife but she was too young.

4. What did Lucie say about the prisoner at the Old Bailey?

She said that she had met the prisoner on the boat which had carried her and her father from France to England. He was very good and kind to her father and to her.

5. How had Dr. Manette changed very much?

Dr. Manette no longer looked like the man in the room above Defarge's wine shop five years ago. His hair was white, but his eyes were bright and became strong. Sometimes, his face became dark and sad when he remembered the years in the Bastille prison, at these times only his daughter could help him

6. What did Defarge say to Gaspard when the child died?

He asked him to be brave because his child had died quickly, and without pain and that was better to die like that than to go on living in those terrible conditions.

7. Killing the Marquis is a kind of revenge. Explain.

The name of the Marquis's family was hated everywhere in France. They were hard, cruel landowners. The accident of killing the child by the Marquis's coach forced the child's father to take revenge and to kill the Marquis leaving a message saying "Drive him fast to his grave."

8. Describe the conditions of Charles Darnay after the death of his uncle.

Darnay had become a successful teacher of French in London. He had known, when he came to London, that he would have to work hard to earn his living, and he was successful. He was in love with Lucie from the time of the Old Baily.

9. How did Sydney Carton save Charles Darnay?

He saved him by using his similarity to Charles Darnay.

10. Why did people of France hate the aristocratic class?

People of France hated the aristocratic class because they treated the poor people with injustice. They humiliated them. The king spent the money on himself.

11. What did the Marquise do to the little child? What was his reaction toward his father?

The Marquise ran over the little child by his coach. He threw a golden coin towards the child's father.

12. The Bastille is a place for injustice. Explain

Anyone who was against the Evermonde Family was sent to Bastille without a trial. Dr. Manette was an example. He spent 18 years because of knowing a secret about that family. After he had been set free, he lost his mind and forgot everything.

Comment on the following Quotations:

1. "One hundred and five, North Tower."

Dr. Manette said these words to Lucie, Mr. Lorry and Mons. Defarge. He said these words as he had lost his memory. He lived in misery in the Bastille, so they came to bring him back to life.

2. "Nobody is good enough for my darling Lucie,"

Miss Pross said these words to Mr. Lorry as she was irritated that Sydney Carton and Charles Darnay kept visiting her.

3. “He will be better far away from this city where he has lost so much of his life”.

Lucie said these words to Mr. Lorry and Mons. Defarge. She felt pity for her father who had lost his memory and was treated with injustice.

4. “It's too late for that. I shall never be better than I am.”

Sydney Carton said these words to Lucie. He felt pity for himself. He was reckless and careless though he was a clever lawyer

5. "It is better to die like that than to go on living in these terrible times."

Mons. Defarge said these words to Gaspard.

The coach wheels of the Marquiz hit Gaspard's son and killed him at once. Gaspard was very sad and Defarge wanted to comfort him.
