Poetry

Tiger

1- The poem is divided into six stanzas of four lines each [4 quatrains].

The first and last stanzas are the same, except for one word change:

"could" becomes "dare."

2- William Blake

3- The poet describes a beautiful animal, the tiger, how it looks like, how strong he is & he wonders how God created him in such perfect shape.

4- "The Tiger" is a poem made of questions. There are no less than thirteen question marks and only one full sentence that ends with a period instead of a question mark.

"The first stanza opens the central question: "What immortal hand or eye, / could frame thy fearful symmetry?" The second stanza questions "the Tiger" about where he was created, the third about how the creator formed him, the fourth about what tools were used. The fifth stanza goes on to ask about how the creator reacted to his creation ("the Tiger") and who exactly this creator was.

5-

Tiger! Tiger! burning bright

In the forests of the night,

What immortal hand or eye

Dare frame thy fearful symmetry?

Paraphrase:

In this stanza, the poet describes how the tiger looks like. He addresses the tiger that shines and grows with fierce eyes & shining fur in the forest during he night. He asks the tiger, "Who created you with such a beautiful body?"

Figures of speech
