Poetry

Daffodiles

1-What sort of poem is Daffodils?

It's a lyrical poem "expressing personal thoughts and feelings" which begins with a picture that was to become typical of Romantic work.

2-The poem is a Romantic work. Illustrate.

In this poem we can find the three main elements of Romanticism; the poet walks aimlessly – He is alone – He likens himself to an object from the natural world "cloud".

3-What is the main idea?

The poet is writing about himself in communication with nature. He feels happy not only when he watches the daffodils, but also when he remembers them.

When that happens, his heart is filled with pleasure and dances with the daffodils.

*I wandered lonely as a cloud
That floats on high o'er vales and hills,
When all at once I saw a crowd,
A host, of golden daffodils;
Beside the lake, beneath the trees,
Fluttering and dancing in the breeze.*

4- Paraphrase the first stanza and pick out two figures of speech.

The poet says that he was walking aimlessly, alone, like a cloud that is wandering in the sky, when suddenly, beside the lake, under some trees, he saw a great number of daffodils moving in the wind as though they were dancing.

Literary terms:

a) Personification

verse 6 Fluttering and dancing in the breeze

* The daffodils are dancing like humans.

b) Contrast

verse 2 That floats on high o'er vales and hills ...

verse 5 Beside the lake, beneath the trees,

* The words "o'er" and "beneath", here, are contrasted.

*The solitariness of the poet & the company of daffodils

*The slowness of "wandering & floating" and the quickness of "fluttering & dancing"

c) Simile

verse 1 I wandered lonely as a cloud

* The poet is comparing himself to a cloud.

Rhyme scheme: ab ab cc

For oft, when on my couch I lie

In vacant or in pensive mood,

They flash upon that inward eye

*Which is the bliss of solitude;
And then my heart with pleasure fills,
And dances with the daffodils.*

Paraphrase: Whenever the poet is a lone in his house, relaxing or feeling sad and serious, the memory of the daffodils appears in his mind. He becomes completely happy when he remembers the beautiful daffodils that he saw one day. He feels that his heart is dancing happily with the daffodils, as they danced on the day he saw them. He understands that nature and his own happiness are connected.

Literary terms:

- a) contrast: Line 2 vacant / pensive
- b) Alliteration: Line 6 And dances with the daffodils. * The 'd' in 'dances' and 'daffodils' have the same sound.
- c) Personification : Line 6 And dances with the daffodils. * The poet's heart is dancing with the daffodils, but only humans can dance.

Rhyme scheme: ab ab cc
